From solos to performances with 10 dancers and live bands, flamenco to tap, fusion and modern, pieces that explore the physics of motion and emotion, to pieces that explore the unconscious world and premiere performances from new Austin dance companies, 10 Minutes Max offers something for everyone.

Started in 1989 as Performance Plus, 10 MINUTES MAX continues to serve as a platform for artists new to Austin as a place to introduce their work, as well as providing a platform for emerging choreographers and artists to showcase their first public presentations and established artists to tryout new ideas. 10 MINUTES MAX has always been known as a forum where artists can present interdisciplinary and multi-disciplinary ideas. Where dancers explore theatre, theatre artists explore movement, and musicians explore both. And like its title, all pieces are no more than 10 MINUTES!
